The Connecticut Municipal Electric Energy Cooperative (CMEEC) has publicly posted the following written disclosure on its website: www.cmeec.com under SEC Municipal Financial Advisor Disclosure. CMEEC intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule.

CMEEC has retained an independent registered municipal advisor. CMEEC is represented by and will rely on its municipal advisor Public Financial Management (PFM) to provide advice on proposals from financial services firms concerning the issuance of municipal securities and municipal financial products (including investments of bond proceeds and escrow investments). This disclosure may be relied upon until further notification. Proposals may be addressed to Edward J. Pryor, CFO of CMEEC. If the proposal received will be seriously considered by CMEEC, CMEEC will share the document with its municipal advisor and the primary contact at PFM, which is Michael Mace, Managing Director. Please note, that aside from regulatory mandated Correspondence between a financial services firm and the municipal advisor, the financial Services firm should not speak directly with or send documents directly to the municipal advisor unless specifically directed to by CMEEC.

CMEEC makes no representation as to the sufficiency of the above for such purpose and specifically disclaims any responsibility or liability with respect to compliance with the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule by any third party other than with respect to the accuracy of the representation made herein.

Regards,
